

CEO's Message: March 2026

In the Age of AI, our focus at Indus is on humanising our children to ensure they remain more than just users of technology. We achieve this by teaching them deep empathy and the emotional intelligence that machines simply cannot replicate.

Our goal is to nurture self-aware leaders who use AI as a companion, while keeping their unique human spirit and values at the centre of everything they do.